EXAMINATION REPORT - SEPARATE SHEET

International application No. PCT/US03/11255

Re Item V

Reasoned statement with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability;
citations and explanations supporting such statement

Reference is made to the following documents:

- D1: EP-A-1209519 (Eastman Kodak Company)
- D2: EP-A-1209518 (Eastman Kodak Company)
- D3: US-A-2001000236 (ExxonMobil Chemical Company)
- D4: WO0200412 (3M Innovative Properties Company)

1. Novelty (Art. 33(2) PCT) and Inventive Step (Art. 33(3) PCT)

- 1a. From documents D1, D2, and D3 a printable substrate is known. Said substrate comprises oriented polypropylene foam layer having an ink receptive surface (D1: page 4, lines 47-48; page 6, lines 9-15; page 7, lines 51-52; D2: page 4, lines 47-48; page 6, lines 9-15; page 7, lines 20-21; D3: par. [0024], [0031]-[0033]). Additionally, D3 discloses a security document comprising said substrate (D3: par. [0002]).

The feature related to high melt-strength is implicitly disclosed in D1, D2, and D3, since the same kind of polymers (e.g. crosslinked polypropylene) are used in each document the present application, D1, D2, and D3 (see page 7, lines 7-8 of the present application; and D1: page 4, line 54; page 5, line 28; D2: page 5 lines 27-28; D3: par. [0025], [0031]).

The printable substrate according to claim 1 is therefore disclosed in documents D1, D2, and D3 and the security document according to claim 36 is therefore disclosed in D3. Thus claims 1 and 36 are not novel (Article 33(1)(2) PCT).

- 1b. A process for making an ink receptive article is disclosed in document D3. Said process comprises the following steps:
- (1) providing an oriented, high melt-strength polypropylene foam; and
 - (2) providing an ink-receptive surface on at least one major surface of the foam (D3: Examples 1-4).

The subject-matter according to claim 37 is therefore known from document D3, and thus not novel (Article 33(1)(2) PCT).

INTERNATIONAL PRELIMINARY
EXAMINATION REPORT - SEPARATE SHEET

International application No. PCT/US03/11255

- 1c. The features of dependent claims 2-6, 8-10, 27, 38-50 have already been employed for a process for producing a polypropylene foam structure, see document D4 (page 4, line 5 - page 19, line 8). It would therefore be obvious to the person skilled in the art, to apply these features with corresponding effect to a polypropylene foam according to documents D1, D2, or D3, thereby arriving at the substrate according to claims 2-6, 8-10, 27, and the process according to claims 38-50 (Article 33(3) PCT).
- 1d. Dependent claims 2-10, 13, 15-18, 20-22, 24-29, 31, 32, 34, 35, 38-50, 52, 53, and 55 do not contain any features which, in combination with the features of any claim to which they refer, meet the requirements of the PCT in respect of novelty and/or inventive step.

2. Further remark related to Item I. Basis of the report

It is noted that when the amended sheet for page 7 was filed, it seems that the last line (line 32) on the originally filed page 7 has been omitted by mistake.
